You are being given a powerful gift to help you have good luck in money, relationships, love, and health. This mala has been blessed with prayer in the hope that simply owning it will give you good luck, happiness, and health. But through the saying of mantras, you can build relationships with powerful helpers. By learning how to use it and when, you will be able to get the exact help you need in life.

There are many bodhisattvas who have taken vows to rescue all beings from suffering. They have decided to help every being who calls on them in order to direct them to a safe, happy, and healthy life. If you pray to their mantras with a desire for help, they will help you. The more you pray, the more effects you will see. With each recitation, you gain power in the particular area a bodhisattva helps people with.

Don't forget to dedicate the merit of your recitation to the enlightenment of all beings. Just as the merit of this document is.

1

Nammo Tassa (x3)

Meditate 1-5 min.

Make a wish for all beings to be happy and free from suffering.

2

Hold the mala in your left hand over your index finger.

Pull each bead toward you with your thumb.

Homage to Amitabha

Amitabha Buddha, after countless eons of cultivation, created the Western Pure Land of Ultimate Bliss as a refuge where beings can become free from the cycle of rebirth. Unlike temporary heavenly realms, the Pure Land offers true liberation. Amitabha's mantra aligns us with his vow and connects us to the great light and life which dispels fears, eliminates obstacles and ultimately allows us to be born there if we choose.

Homage to Ksitigharba

After his mother fell into a hell realm, he worked tirelessly to rescue her by making merit. After his success, he took the great vow to rescue all beings from the hell realms until they are empty. In his right hand is a scepter that beats down the doors of hell, and in his left is a wish-fulfilling gem. His mantra is very powerful; say it to remove obstacles, chase away evil spirits, and correct bad karma.
